

A word cloud shaped like a map of the United States, featuring names of authors and poets such as Liza, Doreen, Domani, and Cabanera, along with various descriptive words like 'impractical', 'unreliable', and 'slopping'. The words are arranged in a way that they fit the geographical outline of the country, with larger words being more prominent. The background is a light blue gradient.